MR. AHERNE: Richard Aherne, for Pittsburgh Corning.

On July 29, 1982 UNR Industries Corporation filed a petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division seeking reorganization treatment pursuant to Chapter XI of the Bankruptcy Code. As a result of this filing, Pittsburgh Corning Corporation takes the position that all litigation in which UNR or UNARCO was a party at that time or the filing is automatically stayed. That would include this case.

On behalf of Pittsburgh Corning Corporation, we respectfully request this discovery be postponed and that stay be respected.

If this request is denied, we shall remain and participate; however, it will be the position of Pittsburgh Corning Corporation that first, this discovery will be taken in violation of the automatic stay under title 11 U.S.C. Section 362 and therefore, will be without effect; and second, our participation herein
