YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant, PHARMACIA CORPORATION, is hereby required, pursuant to Rules 33, 34 and 36 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, to serve upon the undersigned within thirty (30) days after service of this notice, their answers in writing and under oath to the following.

The information requested herein is not restricted to your personal knowledge, but includes information in the possession of your attorneys and extends to information which you or your attorneys can obtain upon reasonable inquiry. These discovery requests shall be deemed continuing so as to require supplemental answers to be filed promptly upon obtaining further information between the time answers are served and the time of trial.

GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

"Defendant" means PHARMACIA CORPORATION f/k/a MONSANTO CHEMICAL CO. and all other persons acting on their behalf. "Document" or documents" is used herein within its broadest sense as used in Rule 34(a)(1), and thus includes without limitation originals and non-identical copies of letters, telegrams, memoranda, reports, drafts, notes, summaries or records of conversations and interviews, minutes of meetings, diary entries, notebooks, agreements, printed publications, drawings and sketches, graphs, charts, photographs, brochures, intra and inter-company communications, marginal comments, sales literature, computer inputs, outputs and tapes, and all other writings, including tapes, phone records, and electronic and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by plaintiff through detection devices into reasonably usable form.

"Communication" means the transmission, sending and/or receipt of information of any kind by and/or through any means including, but not limited to speech, writings, language (machine, foreign or otherwise), computer electronics of any kind, magnetic tape, video tape, photographs, graphs, symbols, signs, magnetic disks, sound, radio and/or video signals, telephone, teletype, telecommunication, telegram, microfilm, microfiche, photographic film of any type and/or other media of any kind.

"Identify" as applied to a communication means that the following information shall be provided:

(a) the date(s) on which such communication took place;

(b) the location(s) at which such communication took place;

(c) all persons having knowledge of such communication;

(d) the date, author, addressee and type of each document (e.g., letter, memorandum, telegram, chart, computer input and output, photograph, sound reproduction, etc.) referring and/or relating to such communication and the last known custodian(s) and location(s) of each document.

"Identify" as applied to a document means that the following information shall be provided:

(a) the date appearing on such documents, and if no date appears thereon, the answer shall so state and shall give the date or approximate date such document was prepared;

(b) the identifying or descriptive code number, file number, title or label of such document;

(c) the general nature or description of such document (i.e., whether it is a letter, memorandum, drawing, etc.) and the number of pages of which it consists;

(d) the name of the person who signed such document, and if it was not signed, the answer shall so state and shall give the name of the person or persons who prepared it;

(e) the name of the person to whom such document was addressed and the name of each person other than such addressee to whom such document or copies thereof were given or sent;

(f) the name of the person having possession, custody or control of such document;

(g) whether or not any draft, copy, or reproduction of such document contains any postscript, notation, change, or addendum not appearing on the original of said document, and if so, the answer shall give the description as herein defined of each such draft, copy or reproduction;

(h) if any such document was, but is no longer, in defendant's possession or subject to its control, state what disposition was made of it and when;

(i) if the person's present whereabouts are unknown to defendant, state all information known to defendant that reasonably may be helpful in locating said person (for example; spouse's name, children's names and addresses; and the names and addresses of other known relatives).

"Identify" as applied to a natural person means to give the following information:

(a) full name;

(b) present or last known home address;

(c) present or last known business address and telephone number;

(d) title or occupation;

(e) present or last known employer;

(f) if the person had ever been employed by defendant, state all employment positions which the person has held with defendant and the dates of each such employment position; and

(g) if the person's present whereabouts are unknown to defendant, state all information known to defendant that reasonably may be helpful in locating said person (for example; spouse's name; children's names and addresses; and the names and addresses of other known relatives).

"Representative" as applied to a legal entity means any officer, agent, employer or other person acting on behalf of that legal entity.

If any document is not produced on the grounds of attorney-client privilege or attorney work product, please furnish the following information with respect to each such document:

(a) State the date of the document;

(b) State the subject matter of the document;

(c) Identify the persons who prepared the document;

(d) Identify all persons who received the document;

(e) Identify all persons who are in the possession or control of the document;

(f) State in meaningful terms the privilege(s) claimed.

The terms "relating to" or "relate to" shall mean, consist of, refer to, reflect on, arise out of, or be in any way or manner legally, factually, or logically connected with the matter discussed.

The term "person" shall mean any natural person, governmental body, governmental agency, corporation, general or limited partnership, joint venture, and/or any
