Dear Dr. Selikoff:

I'm off tomorrow to the Stockholm Conference. I am hoping to interest the various trade union delegates that I meet in our idea for a conference on occupational health early next year. Hopefully, I'll have a good bit to work from when I return.

I had the opportunity to meet a young lady today who told me she was going to be interviewed by you regarding a job possibility. I was impressed with her. Her name is Jane Ann McNew.

I look forward to the conference in the Poconos, which I think has great possibilities.

Regards,

Anthony Mazzocchi
