

1 heard testimony from Dr. Paige and from the factual
2 testimony of Mrs. Grewe about the household services
3 that he did.

4 He built the house that they lived in, he
5 and his children, his two sons. He painted the house.
6 He did all of the maintenance around the house.

7 He worked on the cars. He did what a good
8 husband did, and those facts speak for themselves.
9 That is the facts in the case.

10 Those services were 39,256, and that was the 11 number given by Dr. Paige with reasonable certainty.

12 Remember, ladies and gentlemen, those
13 numbers, they are recommendations, but the facts in 14 these cases, in this case and the Wood case call for 15 these damages and numbers because they are the 16 injuries that occurred.

17 Finally, the last figure is the amount of 18 compensatory damages in favor and for the damages to 19 the marital relationship.

20 As Ms. Hines has said, there is no doubt
21 that the marital relationship here was injured. I
