responsibility as the supplier of brake lining to warn the customer of this possibility, closed quote?

MR. MENDRZYCKI: Objection.

MR. TOWLE: Objection.

Q And this is possibility is the release of asbestos from brake linings; correct?

MR. MENDRZYCKI: Objection.

MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection to form.

A That's what I said. This is was in response to, I believe, a question from Mr. Kelly.

Q Who was Mr. Kelly at Bendix?

A What's the address? At that time he was in South Bend. He was, I think he was in charge of aftermarket sales.

Q In the second page of Exhibit CC, you indicate a reference to Mr. Armstrong who we've already noted was the safety director at Bendix and you write, quote, Your Mr. Armstrong is aware of some of the controversy concerning labeling. The current survey indicates that no members are now labeling shipments, closed quote.

Does that mean that as of November 1972 no FMSI members were labeling shipments of asbestos-containing products --

MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection to form.
