Dear Aurelia: Thank you so much for giving us times for your availability to discuss the issue of USFWS lands on St. Paul Island and the possibility of a TDX/FWS land exchange that could be mutually beneficial to the Service and TDX. I just got off the phone with Steve Delehanty with the USFWS in Alaska who was kind enough to interrupt his vacation to talk with me. I have cc'd Steve on this e-mail. Perhaps it would be best if we could postpone our call until Wednesday or later of next week when Steve is back from vacation as he was on St. Paul not long ago, has met Ron and had at least a preliminary chat about Ron's wanting to begin a conversation about a potential land exchange. Between now and when the call is set for next week, we will get additional background information pulled together. I am asking my Assistant, Cookie Grant to assist in setting up the call including providing a conference call-in number. Thanks very much.

Dear Aurelia, sorry for the delay. Ron Philemonoff, CEO for TDX, the ANCSA Village Corporation for St. Paul, was on vacation visiting family until today. In the meantime I did get a call from Steve Delahanti (sp?) with USFWS in Alaska. I have not called Steve back yet because I wanted to talk with Ron first, which I was able to do earlier this week, albeit only briefly. In any case I will call Steve today. Perhaps we can still set this call up for tomorrow the 12th, and if not then early next week. I will make these calls, round up some additional background information, and get back to you. Thanks very much.
