lot in Hayward last night resulted in a call to Hayward deputies of the Alameda County sheriff's office. When deputies arrived they said they found Tell emerging from the lot.

The 11-year-old girl was found crying.

The eight-year-old girl, with a seven-year-old sister, who officers said was not molested, had run to the home of the Rev. R. J.
Wells, at 16360 East 14th Street.

It was the Rev. Wells who gave the alarm to Deputies Charles Byrd and Ronald Bernes that he believed a man was beating his wife from the screams coming from the lot adjacent to his home.

Tell's arrest record at the Oakland police department shows 19 notations, mostly for drunkenness and vagrancy. He is a one-time Hayward waiter. He is the father of a child.
