I understand from discussions with Kathleen Pettingill that you have requested the box of documents which you forwarded to me be returned. At your request, the documents are being returned under separate cover.

My office is in the process of locating the documents outlined in your letters. Every effort will be made to secure the most legible copies possible. Copies of the additional documents which you requested will be Federal Expressed to you sometime this week, provided they are relevant and there is no objection to their production. If there is an objection to the production of a particular document, it will be noted in my letter to you.

Kind regards,

Yours truly,

Louis P. Ferns
