

A high-contrast, black and white image showing five coins scattered on a dark, textured surface. The coins are of various denominations and orientations. One coin in the upper left shows a profile of a person. Another in the center shows a profile of a person. A third in the lower center shows a profile of a person. A fourth in the upper right shows a profile of a person. A fifth in the lower right shows a profile of a person. The coins are scattered in a way that suggests they have been tossed or dropped.
