inception of a newspaper of her offer. Mrs. said she has received 15 and about a dozen calls from women who to take their children. The women said their husbands left them and they were unable to provide support. The women got the mistaken idea of an orphan home.

He left behind in Switzerland were his mother, two brothers and sister who will probably start soon on their way to the Pacific Coast.

Hopkins of the great gold finds which began last January at his father's sawmill on the American Fork alerted the young man when the hunters touched at Monterey a few days ago. Neither he nor any of those aboard the ship of course had any knowledge of the discovery as when they left New York 1-3 days ago to round Cape Horn for San Francisco.

As soon as possible the junior Sutter will take transportation to San Francisco to be reunited with his ill-fated father. After seeking to harvest his wheat under great difficulties because most of his men flocked to the diggings, Captain Sutter himself recently has been away from his head-

Deportations already plentiful a San Francisco because of its close ness to the gold mines are also plentiful. Capt. Christopher Allison of the ship Ina Walton reported today all of his hands have left and they will go to work on all cargo is landed and ballast put aboard.

There is no help to be had a pure Capt. Allison said a storm ship which sailed recently took three of his men at pay of $100 month and coasting vessels are also offering the same wage. Practically all ships at San Francisco have been stripped and laid up.

A sailor will be up at the mines for two months work on his own account and come down with $2,000 to $3,000," said Capt. Allison and those that go in parties of much better.

"I'll myself has been offered $1 a day to go to the mines and work for one year.
