

For Woodwork SILKENWHITE ENAMEL

WOODWORK that gleams in rich and satin-like venues—in aristocratic ivory or gray or pastel white.

Woodwork that provides gracious and fitting backgrounds for rugs and furniture, for pictures and hangings.

Finish or re-finish the woodwork in your home with Silkenwhite Enamel. In delightful shades and colors, it helps make the home beautiful and enduring. A blending of high grade varnishes and pure pigments, Silkenwhite Enamel forms a smooth, satin surface of remarkable durability.

Police in Endurance Test Reports Engine and Self in Good Shape

"I'm just warming up," Bobbie Darrell, veteran cross-country pilot and basketball coach,

Los Angeles Times
10-16-1925

Late in the afternoon with the test extending well into the second day Darrell reported he was feeling "fine" and that the engine of his Gardner eight-cylinder was "functioning perfectly."
At 11:10 p.m. yesterday Darrell had driven twenty-four hours without halt, his arm handcuffed to the steering wheel. His purpose, unless he collapses in the attempt, is to drive continuously for 121 hours and ten minutes to set a new world endurance record.
The test will be completed Wednesday afternoon. Ice cream supplied by the National Ice Cream Company is the only form of food which Darrell is consuming on the gruelling drive.

POLICE FIND MYSTERY IN KIDNAP CASE

Officers Failed in Effort to Get Clues Confirming Reported Abduction

Police were seeking the (University district, law, right, seeking information of a woman reported kidnaped, but had been unable to learn who, if anyone, is missing.
The report of the supposed kidnaping was made by H. A. Fletcher, of 1314 South Vermont avenue.
Fletcher declared he had been awakened by a woman's screams and, looking from his bedroom window, saw a woman, struggling, being dragged by two men toward a closed automobile at the corner of Fort-street and Vermont avenue.

It was so dark, he said, that he could not make out any details and could not give a description of the woman. He supposed the woman, or the woman's mother, of the car. The men threw the woman into the car and drove away.
Fletcher said.

Tomorrow's Southwest Museum
Program Juvenile Offering

Folk lore and Breton stories of Ireland, sketches of Shakespeare, Newton and Copernicus, a motion picture, "Day and Night" and Irish folk dances by Evelyn Adams will be on the Children's Stage program at the Southwest Museum tomorrow at 11 a.m. The Sunday lecture, at 1 p.m., will be given by Dr.
Frederick O. Leonard, instructor in astronomy at the University of California, Southern Branch, on "Our Place in the Cosmos." Dr.
Leonard is a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society of England, the American Astronomical Society, the Astronomical Society of the Pacific and of other scientific organizations. His lec-

Class Lloyd, a negro, convicted as a pickpocket, sentenced him to the Brown, a department store defective and one of the witnesses against her.
The hearing was held out of court in custody of Deputy Sheriff Law, after having her case continued two weeks on a probation request. She broke away from the deputy, seized Mrs. Brown by the hair, and began slaming blows upon her face. The deputy and from the stroller street nab-

MARION

"Lights of Old Broadway"

STARTS TOMORROW

MARION DAVIES in the greatest triumph of her screen career.

A stirring and romantic tale of a glorious girl of New York's Shantytown who danced her way into the heart of a young aristocrat.

In the midst of amazing adventure their love unfolded. Around them strife raged furiously, the glamour of Broadway swirled, the name of Edison flashed across the skies.

Don't miss "Lights of Old Broadway."
