Earth & Water Law Group Expands to Southeast

Washington, D.C., January 9, 2018 - Earth & Water Law, LLC (part of the Earth & Water Law Group) announced today the firm's opening of its office in Atlanta, Georgia. David Moore, Esq., recognized by Chambers, Superlawyers, and other legal ranking associations, joins the Earth & Water Law team today and will helm both the firm's Atlanta office and growing Southeast practice.

"The opening of our Atlanta office is in direct response to the growing client base of Earth & Water Law, and enables us to better meet the increasing demands for our services by clients in the growing Atlanta and Southeast markets," said Brent Fewell, Chairman of the Earth & Water Law Group. "Dave Moore's experience as a world-class attorney in the infrastructure, litigation and environmental sectors expands Earth & Water's capabilities dramatically, and raises our ability to better serve both current and future clients in these arenas," Fewell added.

Moore comes to Earth & Water Law as a former partner with Amlaw 200 firms, and as a former senior official with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in New York, Washington and Atlanta. His portfolio includes representation of both Fortune 500 companies and some of the largest privately held firms across the U.S. He is widely regarded as one of the Nation's leading environmental, energy and regulatory attorneys.

"I'm honored to be chosen as part of the Earth & Water Law team, and to bring both my expertise and that of the firm to Atlanta," Moore said. "Earth & Water law is part of the U.S. legal services industry's successful move towards the "new law paradigm" practice, and I look forward to working with the team to expand our practice throughout the Southeast," he added.
