

Local Exhaust Systems

Chapter 29

Control of Hazardous Processes	852
Role of the safety professional
Local Exhaust Systems	854
Parts of a local exhaust system Hoods Ducts Air cleaners—general Air cleaner efficiency Dust arresters Air cleaners for radioactive dusts Air cleaners for fumes and smokes Air cleaners for gases and vapors Fans Fire prevention considerations Checking performance
Exhausts for Special Operations	881
Open-surface tanks Spray booths Fume control for electric welding Dust control in foundries Grinding operations Woodworking Cast iron machining Oil mist Melting furnaces Materials conveying Internal combustion engine ventilation Fog removal Kitchen range hoods Recirculation of “cleaned” air
References	894