Dear Sir-

I notice our half page advertisement on the back page of the September 15th issue of Carolina Farmer & Stockman. I suppose that there is no charge for this advertisement as I think we discussed this advertising proposition recently and came to the conclusion that it would not be necessary for us to do any advertising for the present and should we think it advisable at any time in the future, the matter would be taken up before anything definite was done.

I am simply mentioning this so as to avoid the possibility of any mis-understanding. I do not think, as long as we really have nothing to sell and until we are in better shape, there is no use for us to do any advertising.

I would also like to know if the letter heads that were purchased recently are all at your office or whether some of them were sent to this office. I have not been able to locate any of them and, as I would like to have a supply on hand here for any Richfield correspondence that I may want to do, I would ask that if you have all of them to please send several boxes of the paper and envelopes to my office.
