Subject: Oil Magazine interview request for Mr. Pruitt

Dear Press Team,

I am writing to you again as the North American reporter for an international energy publication called Oil Magazine. We are an international energy quarterly published in Italy under the auspices of ENI and are circulation internationally to decision-maker, influencer and academic audiences. We also have a website that covers current energy issues.

We would like to request an interview with Mr. Pruitt about the agency's top goals in energy and power related sectors. It would be a Q and A format using his words, edited only for clarity and space.

Would be very grateful if you could let me know if this would be possible, as I did not receive a reply to my previous request. Below are links to our website and to our most recent magazines.

Thank you very much,
Molly Moore
