

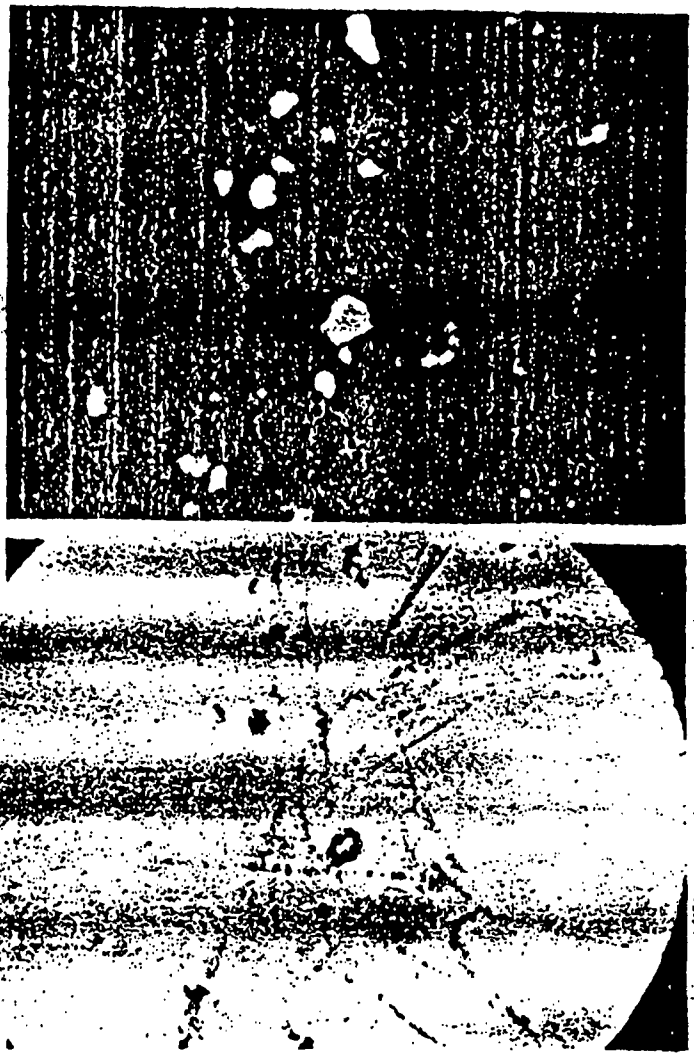

FIGURE 9. Benzo[a]pyrene + long fibered Canadian chrysotile in (left) white light and (right) ultraviolet (1963 Corning primary filter + 3484 Secondary filter). The fluorescent particles are benzo(a)pyrene. Bright areas in the original.

they might be trapp tile we have used. F
muat remain in cont
i.e., epithelial papill repeated administra
tinued contact. It is mon use may act in
we have done a num

1. Chrysotile fibe sulfate (1:100,000
solution, and the fi

2. Chrysotile + B
adsorption of B. P.
saline; (c) acetone;
pending liquids were fluorescence. In the
from that of the co
found that the adher
centrifugation, shak
the carcinogen part
white light and by fl
but the fluorescence

Although these re
B. P. on the surface
solid inspired partic
contact with respira

The chrysotile use
the Asbestos Corpor
done for us by S.
grateful for the use
tion for the 60 cycle
sultation.

1. POLICARD, A. 196
pneumoconioses
2. STEWART, M. J. &
of pulmonary
lung puncture
3. GLOYNE, S. R. 19
asbestos worke
4. Report of the In quest. Minutes

B000 0955 PQ

PRODUCED BY FORD