DRAWBACK MERCHANDISE - EXTENSION OF PERIOD FOR EXPORTATION

Further extensions of 3-year period prescribed in Section 313 (h), Tariff Act of 1930.

Treasury Department,
Washington, D. C.

April 29, 1935.

TO COLLECTORS OF CUSTOMS AND OTHERS CONCERNED:

Acting under the authority vested in him by Sec. 318 of the Tariff Act of 1930, the President, on April 1, 1935, issued a proclamation declaring an emergency to exist and authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury (1) in the case of articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported or substituted merchandise for drawback purposes where the imported merchandise involved was imported on or after June 18, 1930, and on or before December 31, 1930, to extend the period for exportation of the completed article, or shipment thereof to the Philippine Islands, for not more than 1 year from and after the expiration of the 3-year period prescribed in Section 313 (h) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as extended for 3 years under the authority of a proclamation dated December 23, 1932 (T.D. 46089); and (2) in the case of articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported or substituted merchandise for drawback purposes where the imported merchandise involved was imported during the calendar year 1931, to extend the period for exportation of the completed article, or shipment thereof to the Philippine Islands, for not more than 1 year from and after the expiration of the 3-year period prescribed in said Sec. 313 (h), as extended for 1 year under the authority of a proclamation dated December 30, 1933 (T.D.46823); and (3) in the case of articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported or substituted merchandise for drawback purposes where the imported merchandise involved was imported during the calendar year 1932, to extend the period for exportation of the completed article, or shipment thereof to the Philippine Islands, for not more than 1 year from and after the expiration of the 3-year period prescribed in said Sec. 313 (h), subject to the following proviso:

> "Provided, however, that the extensions of 1 year herein authorized shall not apply in any case involving merchandise imported in 1931 where the 1-year period of extension authorized in the said proclamation of December 30, 1933, has expired, or in any case involving merchandise imported in 1932 where the 3-year period prescribed in section 313 (h) of the Tariff Act of 1930 has expired."

N16891

April 29, 1935.

Drawback Merchandise - Extension of Period for Exportation.

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by the President's proclamation of April 1, 1935, the period prescribed in Sec. 313 (h) of the Tariff Act for the exportation, or shipment to the Philippine Islands, of articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported or substituted merchandise, is hereby extended for a further period of 1 year in cases where the imported merchandise involved was imported on or after June 18, 1930, and on or before December 31, 1930, or imported during the calendar years 1931 and 1932 (but not including certain merchandise hereinafter referred to).

Under this extension, collectors of customs are hereby authorized to allow the following periods for exportation of the of the completed article or shipment thereof to the Philippine Islands: - (1) not exceeding 6 years after importation in cases where the imported merchandise involved was imported on or after June 18, 1930, and on or before December 31, 1930; (2) not exceeding 5 years after importation in cases where the imported merchandise involved was imported during the calendar year 1931; and (3) not exceeding 4 years after importation in cases where the imported merchandise involved was imported during the calendar year 1932.

The extension of 1 year herein granted and the authority given to collectors under the extension shall not apply in those cases where the imported merchandise involved was imported between January 1 and March 31, 1931 (both dates inclusive), or between January 1 and March 31, 1932 (both dates inclusive).

T. J. COOLIDGE (SIGNED)

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.
