Dear Friend:

Does your house need painting? How about the garage, fences, or just the trim of the house? We have a fresh supply of Endurance House Paint, just received from the great Glidden paint factory. It is a top-quality paint, made of pure White Lead and Titanium, finely ground in heavy-bodied Linseed Oil. Endurance House Paint is self-cleaning . . . it chinks gradually and uniformly, to make an ideal surface for repainting years later. We also have Endurance BASECOAT, the perfect primer which gives you the finest two-coat paint job when you use it under Endurance House Paint. We believe these two paints are the best ever made for outside house painting. Call us at your earliest convenience for an estimate on your painting requirements.
