IMPORTANT,

LIABILITY OF CARRIERS, BAILEES OR OTHER PARTIES.
It is the duty of the Assured and their Agents, in all cases, to take such measures as may be reasonable for the purpose of averting or minimizing a loss and to ensure that all rights against Carriers, Bailees or other third parties are properly preserved and asserted. In particular, the Assured or their Agents are required to —

1. To claim immediately on the Carriers and on the Port Authorities for any missing packages.
2. To apply immediately for survey in the docks by carriers' representatives if any loss or damage be apparent and claim on the Carriers for any actual (weather driven) loss; (on all surveys, in doubtful conditions, except under written protest, to give a clean receipt, where goods are damaged).
3. To give notice in writing to the carriers' representative within three days of delivery if the loss or damage was not apparent at the time of taking delivery.
4. To give notice in writing to the carriers' representative within three days of delivery if the loss or damage was not apparent at the time of taking delivery.

Note.—The Consignees or their Agents are recommended to make themselves familiar with the Regulations of the Port Authorities at the port of discharge.

Any claim under this insurance should be submitted without delay, accompanied by all correspondence with Carriers and other parties regarding their liability.

SUEVEY.

In the event of damage which may involve a claim under this policy or certificate, immediate notice of such damage should be given to and a Survey Report obtained from the Agents named hereto.
