Jackie,
I hope to raise the invitation with the Secretary tomorrow.

He won't be able to share much information regarding the second half of FY 2017 nor FY 2018. We don't know what the Hill is planning for FY 2017....the rumors suggest another CR, other say an omnibus bill. We haven't had any real role. Regarding FY 2018, the White House plans to release a top line "skinny" budget, but the underlying details are still being worked out, so the details are embargoed.

Jim Attached is the invite for Secretary Zinke to attend the TBIC meeting next week. If at all possible it would be great he could come by not only to see the value of the TBIC but to share with all those tribal leaders his budget direction. If you need anything else from me please let me know. Thanks Jackie
