Subject: Follow up on PFOA/PFOS drinking water issue

Dear Ryan –

Thanks again for your time today, which is very much appreciated. As mentioned, one of my partners is our lead counsel on PFOA/PFOS issues. His name is Rob Bilott and is copied here. He has a wealth of scientific and analytical knowledge that the EPA may find useful, and can certainly address the issues much better than me. You'll find him a valuable resource, and please feel free to communicate without me going forward. I'll only slow you down.

Kind regards,

Steve
