Industrial Hygienists (ACGIH), P O Box 1937, Cincinnati, Ohio 45201 A professional association composed of industrial hygiene personnel in government Publishes annually a table of recommended threshold limits (Request list of publications)

American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA), 66 S Miller Rd , Akron, Ohio 44313 A professional association composed of industrial hygiene personnel "Hygienic Guides" available on specific chemicals summarizing the current information on physiological effects and methods of control Publishes the Journal of the American Industrial Hygiene Association and manuals on various industrial hygiene subjects (Request list of publications.)

American Medical Association (AMA), 535 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill 60610 Provides information to members on occupational health hazards upon request List of publications upon request

American Petroleum Institute (API), 1271 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N Y 10020 Reports developed by committees on handling of petroleum products available for sale

American National Standards Institute (ANSI), 1430 Broadway, New York, N Y 10018 Numerous standards developed for the handling of specific chemicals

Compressed Gas Association, Inc. (CGA), 500 Fifth Ave , N Y 10036 Membership composed primarily of companies Information on handling of gases available for sale in pamphlet form

Factory Mutual System, 1151 Boston-Providence Turnpike, Norwood, Mass 02062 This is the inspection and engineering service for member insurance companies Some publications, most notably Handbook of Industrial Loss Prevention (McGraw-Hill Book Co , New York, 1959), provide information on chemical handling hazards

Industrial Health Foundation, Inc. (IHF), 5231 Centre Ave , Pittsburgh, Pa 15232 An association of member companies Frequent publications on industrial hygiene problems to its members Some publications offered for sale Private consultation upon request Also conducts research

Industrial Medical Association (IMA), 55 East Washington Street, Chicago, Ill 60602 Provides information to members on occupational health hazards upon request List of publications is available

Manufacturing Chemists' Association, Inc (MCA), 1825 Connecticut Ave , NW , Washington, D C 20009 A trade association composed of companies in the chemical manufacturing and related fields Has published "Safety Data Sheets" on many chemicals, included is much information on health hazards

Mining Enforcement and Safety Administration, Department of Interior, Washington, D C 20240 Performs investigations and publishes extensively on safety and health subjects pertinent to the mineral industries

Occupational Injury and Disease Control Division, Environmental Control Administration, Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 1014 Broadway, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202 Division accumulates toxicity data and safe-handling procedures on various materials They are interested in receiving information and experience as well as providing it

Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U S Department of Labor, Washington, D C 20210

Poison Control Centers. Local units exist in most major cities and maintain active files available to any physician on treatment of acute poisons Nationally, the program is headed by Division of Poison Control, Office of Product Safety, Food and Drug Administration, Dept of Health, Education, and Welfare, Crystal Plaza Bldg No 5, Arlington, Va 22202 Directory is available