

1 A It doesn't.

2 Q It doesn't. When did you first realize that
3 your report didn't reflect that information?

4 A When I went to photograph the case.

5 Q Okay. And that was sometime in the spring
6 of 1996?

7 A Yes, that would be fair.

8 Q Do you recall why your report doesn't
9 reflect the pleural plaque that you showed the jury
10 the morning?

11 A I can't answer that question. I think that 12 perhaps it escaped my attention because I was 13 interested in determining the nature of the cells that 14 were present.

15 As you see, I go on and on and on and on
16 about all of the different stains for the better part
17 of -- well, certainly a third of a page, and I was 18 bound up in this and did not answer that question.

19 Q Okay. When the plaintiffs first sent you
20 the tissue samples and you took a look at it and wrote
21 a report, you were concentrating on the diagnosis end
