Dear Dr. Kehoe:

Our present information is that the court will continue the trial of Circuit Court cases at Elizabeth until the end of the present term, and that, therefore, the above cases will not be reached for trial until the May term, which opens on the second Tuesday in May. I hope that you will be able to attend at that time. If for any reason there is any doubt about this, kindly advise me as soon as possible. I believe that we can have a special day fixed for the trial of these cases and save the inconvenience of having our witnesses spend time in Elizabeth waiting for the cases to be reached.

Very truly yours,

JS/JH
