When you come in I'll introduce you to the new political in Indian Affairs. He doesn't have stature yet, but seems quite willing to roll up his sleeves. See you soon.

Jim,

I didn't have a chance to tell you congratulations on being back at the Department! I'm glad you are there.

But, knowing how busy you are, I don't want to keep bugging you for assistance on tribal issues. So I was hoping you could point me to an appropriate political contact for those issues.

Is there someone else I should be talking to about ASIA hallway issues, or are you the appropriate person? Obviously, I would be thrilled with that.

Talk you soon.

Thanks,

Aurene
