Mr. Jackson,

Stratton reminded me last week that his understanding is that the process of reviewing candidates is continuing, which is why I am reaching out. While I recognize that you must be very busy and summer is upon us, I wanted to check in to see if my letter of interest and resume which Justice Wyrick initially forwarded to the transition committee and I subsequently forwarded to you in March is being considered by the administration. I can assure you that I remain keenly interested in serving the administration in their efforts to integrate a cooperative federalism approach within the agency, however, I have been extended private contracting opportunities starting in the fall for matters concerning e-discovery litigation support and I will need to provide a response by August 1, 2017. If you can provide me any insight as to whether I remain in consideration, it would be greatly appreciated.

Best,

Anthony Edwards

Mr. Jackson,

This is Judge Anthony Edwards in Silverton, CO. I believe my brother Stratton Edwards forwarded you the information that I provided him last week. I initially provided my information to Patrick Wyrick to forward to then Attorney General and now Administrator Pruitt. I imagine that your office is extremely busy, however, I was hoping you could clarify 1) if you received my information, and if so 2) whether I should submit this information through a different path?

Thanks,

Anthony D. Edwards
