L.A. Police Hold Confessed "Fire Bug"

LOS ANGELES, May 25 (UP)—A railroad section hand admitted today that he set $2,000,000 worth of fires, "just for the hell of it."

Louis Lopez, 28, has been setting fires since he was eight, he said. He touched off close to a million dollars worth last week.

The laborer admitted setting 20 major fires in recent months and only that when dried it can be used as a candle by putting a wick through it home. Police said he even burned down the house behind him.

He set a "humdinger" Friday night, he told officers. It was a $100,000 blaze at the Rivera Citrus Association packing house. He burned down a market and a Methodist church in Rivera four days earlier, he said.
