Subject: RE: Press Inquiry about Coal Ash

Good afternoon Arlene,

On background, please: EPA does not track how many MSW landfills receive coal ash because States are responsible for implementing their MSW landfill programs. Individual States may possess such information.

Cheers, R.

Hello, I got an automatic response from Tricia Lynn that she is out of the office and to contact press office with my request below.

Thanks for helping if you can I hoped to have answer by Monday, June 25 to make my deadline.

Best,
Arlene

Hi Lynn,

I'm writing for Waste360 on coal ash disposal, with a focus on potential opportunity in this space for solid waste management professionals. Would EPA have a record of how many MSW landfills take in coal ash? If so, could you lead me to it?
