asbestos-related disease and the basis of such opinion; the plaintiff's current medical condition and his prognosis thereof; the anatomy and function of the respiratory and circulatory systems; the nature of asbestos; the symptomology, disease process and diagnosis of asbestosis and cancer associated with the respiratory system, peritoneum and peritoneal cavity; the nature and extent of medical and scientific knowledge regarding any association of pulmonary disease with asbestos exposure; the affect of exposure to substances other than asbestos on the development and manifestation of obstructive and restrictive conditions and diseases of the respiratory system; methods of diagnosis of various diseases, especially the means of establishing the differential diagnosis of alleged asbestos-related diseases with other non-asbestos-related disease; incidence of lung cancer among individuals with asbestosis as compared to non-asbestotic asbestos workers and to the general population; cigarette smoking and its affects on the lungs; the relationship of cigarette smoking to cancer of the lung and cancers of other body parts with reference to epidemiology studies and physiologic affect; the difference between impairment and disability; the affect of asbestosis on disability and life expectancy; and the lack of relationship between the presence of pleural plaques and a later development of any form of cancer.

Arthur Langer, Ph.D., Applied Sciences Institute, Brooklyn College - CUNY, Bedford Avenue & Avenue H, Brooklyn, New York (718) 951-4242. Dr. Langer will testify regarding: (a) asbestos and asbestos-containing products generally; (b) what occurs when asbestos-containing products are cut, sawed and handled; (c) the composition of asbestos-containing friction products and the dust levels created by such products; (d) the percentage and type of asbestos fibers contained in such products and the propensity of such products to produce respirable asbestos fibers when cut, handled or otherwise disturbed, as well as to the dust found in brakes and wheels after braking; (e) specific tests performed on such products, the results of such tests, and whether recall of such products should have taken place; (f) the availability of materials as substitutes for asbestos; (g) the utility of asbestos-containing friction products and that such products are not unreasonably dangerous; and, (h) the knowledge of the scientific community of the above.

Plaintiffs' health care providers may testify, either live or by medical records offered at time of trial, as to their examination of the plaintiffs, their findings, conclusions, testing, test results, and diagnoses; they may also provide factual information as to plaintiffs' smoking history, exposure history, and other medical conditions.

Any and all of plaintiffs' treating physicians whose names, addresses and qualifications are already known to plaintiffs' attorneys to testify as to plaintiff's physical conditions.

Defendant reserves the right to call any expert witnesses designated by plaintiffs or any other defendant in this cause; this includes all treating physicians, healthcare providers, and medical record custodians.

If other witnesses to be called at the trial become known, their names, addresses, and subject of their testimony will be reported to opposing counsel in writing as soon as they are known; this does not apply to rebuttal or impeachment witnesses.

Kelly Moore also lists all physicians who examined plaintiffs and/or treated or have reviewed medical records, reports, x-rays or pathology slides or reports pertaining to plaintiffs.

Defendant incorporates herein all of the expert witnesses which have been listed or designated by any other party to this litigation.

Defendant also reserves the right to use any affidavits, depositions, answers to interrogatories and responses to request for admissions by any other party to this action, whether or not such party is still a party at the time of the trial.

Defendant further reserves the right to call any witnesses who may be necessary for rebuttal testimony.

Any and all medical experts retained by the law firms of DeHay & Elliston, Baker & Botts, Butler & Binion, Forman, Perry, Watkins & Krutz, Bean & Manning, or any other counsel in their role as liaison defense counsel.

This defendant reserves the right to file a supplemental list of expert witnesses, based on discovery conducted subsequent to the date of preparation of this designation of expert witnesses.

- (d) Whether any person identified in subparagraph (a) above has provided a report or other documentation to you and, if so, identify each such document or report.

ANSWER: See IME reports sent to plaintiffs' counsel and made available to other parties. The IME reports have been or will be produced in some cases by either Kelly Moore Paint Company or other defendants. In the event defendants' experts prepare a report or other documentation for use at trial, such documents will be provided to plaintiffs' counsel by either Kelly Moore Paint Company, Inc. or one of the other defendants.

- (e) Identify all documents that you have provided to each person identified in response to subparagraph (a) above.

ANSWER: If defendant has provided medical records to a particular physician, a copy of an IME report will be sent to plaintiffs and made available to the other parties. This defendant cannot speculate or state whether other defendants have provided documents to any of the experts identified.

- (f) Describe in detail the education and work history of and identify any books, treatises, articles, published and unpublished reports, studies or other scholarly works authored by any individual identified in response to subparagraph (a) above. Alternatively, in lieu of said response, attach a copy of the resume or curriculum vitae and a list of publications to your answers.

ANSWER: See attached curriculum vitae of Dr. Scott Donaldson and Dr. Gregory Foster (previously filed).
