Subject: Follow-up to Shell Meeting

Bill – I just wanted to thank you and your team for meeting with Shell last week. It was very helpful for Shell to have the opportunity to present directly to you its issues and priorities regarding Subpart OOOOa and other air regulatory matters of importance to the company. Shell very much wants to work collaboratively with you and the agency on these matters and believes that the meeting was very helpful step to them in doing so. Please let us know if there are ways that Shell might support you and your efforts.

I hope that you get some time off for the holidays and look forward to working with you and your team in the new year.

Best,
Stephen
