Being duly sworn, Iola T. Hoerst, who resides at 10109 Wayne Ave., Cincinnati 15, Ohio, deposes and states she is the legal widow of Henry N. Hoerst, deceased, hereinafter known as the decedant.

The affiant further states she was born Iola Knueven, Sept. 25, 1900 at Reading, Ohio. Her mother's maiden name was Catherine Medasch and her father's name was Henry Knueven, both deceased.

The affiant and decedant were married by Father Joseph Rolfes at St. James Church now in Wyoming, Ohio, on October 5, 1927. There was no previous marriage by either party. There were two daughters born of this union, Joan, aged 34 and Ruth Blout 30 years of age. The decedant and affiant were living together as man and wife and had never contemplated separation or divorce. The decedant worked at Philip Carey for twenty-four years.

In 1957 the affiant had his first attack, he was off for eight months and the asbestosis was found and he went back in another department. The decedant was declared a Permanent Total on November 15, 1960, by the Industrial Commission.

In March of 1963 the decedant was placed in Christ Hospital and was home until the fourteenth of September 1963 at which time he was placed in Good Samaritan Hospital, where he died October 17, 1963. An autopsy was performed.

The Schmidt-Dhonau Co., Funeral Directors, were paid $1263.27 by widow-claimant for burial.

The affiant was wholly dependant for support from the decedant and is in fairly good health. History of a slight heart attack some four years ago.

The C-14 shows a direct relationship to Occupational disease for which claim was allowed.
