On the meeting of the Union Groups with Management at this, the Tyler plant on June 10, 1966, with reference to the Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance coverage for retirees, and the necessary changes resulting from the inauguration of the Federal Medicare Plan, it was stipulated by Management that:

(a) The present plan would remain in effect for retirees under 65 years of age.

(b) Upon reaching age 65, a retiree with Medicare Plan B coverage, at its present cost, would be furnished supplemental insurance coverage known as Blue Cross-Blue Shield "Senior Plan" policy with no increase in the ^{existing} monthly premium cost to the retired employee.

For Kelly in Telecom 8712:
