

the United ssociation of

Jack") Glea-
ral chairman,
walk would ht of the as-nd drive to a, needed for c.

onors will be ing Wednes-carriers will ately three eir day time
plained.

victims are
can be reha-
long struggle.
eeded for re-
re-education
ren.

their hope,"
t.

to switch on signal mail-
to contribute

ver Oakland,
da, Albany,
dro, San Lo-
Piedmont,
shland.

ations in the m assigned a youngster to during the

the postmen
cooperation
ssociation of

Donald T. Williams, Oakland Branch 76; Kenneth Geide, Berkeley Branch 863; Joseph Bith-ell, Alameda Branch 135; George B. Silva, San Lorenzo Branch 4111, and LaVern J. Morris, Hayward Branch 1707, all respective presidents, and Charles Johnston, San Leandro Branch 4130 financial secretary-treasurer.

Chairmen for individual Oakland area stations include Peter Burns, Main No. 1; R. G. Christian, Main No. 2; Ted Soderlund, Main No. 3; Ed Orford, Fruit-vale; Bob Clarke, Elmhurst; Stanley McClintock, Dimond; E.
M. Morris, Grand Lake; A. P.
Klaiss Sr., Piedmont; George Nolan, Rockridge; A. P. Klaiss Jr., Temescal; George Kelter, Emeryville; Joseph Ecker, Per-alta; Ernest Broussard, West Oakland, and C. H. Elmstedt, Eastmont.

Cerebral palsied youngsters serving as mascots for the individual stations include Darnell Wallace, West Oakland; Jackie Weatheral, Rockridge; Lily Bassett, Fruitvale; Joal Yu, Temes-cal; Adele Steiner, Peralta; Alice Parks, Eastmont; Jimmy Daily, Elmhurst; Randy Blatz, Piedmont; Bill Phalanger, Emeryville; Eleanor Hahn, Dimond, and Mike Halleran, Main Office.

Headed by Elmer P. Zollner, the association maintains county-wide headquarters at 5224 Foothill Boulevard to assist cerebral palsy victims.

Room 2000 Life Sciences Building on the University of California campus.

A professor of mechanical engineering and chief of the divi-

You name it . . .
Flat Wall Enamel
will paint it!

Our "Dutch Boy" Flat Wall Enamel has the ruggedness of enamel plus the velvety finish of flat paint. 112 colors for practically any interior surface!

Dutch Boy

PAINT STORE

297 - 10th St.

3511 E. 14th St.

may 14, 1953 - p.30
oakland tribune