Governor Scott Recognizes Anthony Campana with the Young Entrepreneur Award

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, during a meeting of the Florida Cabinet, Governor Rick Scott recognized Anthony Campana, 27, with the Governor's Young Entrepreneur Award. Anthony is the Owner and CFO of Frostees Apparel, an apparel design company founded by CEO Ben Frost in July 2012.

Governor Scott said, "I'm proud to present Anthony with the Young Entrepreneur Award today. In Florida, we have reduced more than 5,000 burdensome regulations and cut taxes by more than $7 billion to help job creators succeed. It's great to see our efforts help a small business in Tallahassee thrive, and I look forward to their continued growth in Florida."

Owner and CFO of Frostees Apparel Anthony Campana said, "I am very honored to be awarded the Governor's Young Entrepreneur Award. Frostees is committed to being the one stop shop for all apparel needs. I'm grateful for the success we have seen, and I can't wait to see where we go in the future."
