Scott:

My apologies for the late notice. A member of the LA County Department of Public Works team has had a medical emergency and they need to cancel our scheduled meeting with you tomorrow at 11 am. Mark Pestrella, the DPW chief, will be back in DC at various times over the next three months and I may come back to you for a meeting during one of those visits.

I appreciate you making yourself available for tomorrow and look forward to arranging an alternate meeting soon.

Best regards,

Eric
