Looping in ADs (my oversight).

Also, looks like folks will not grant an extension.

My read suggest the report will be primarily a compilation of on going activities, I'm hoping we can have a good draft by cob Friday.

Take care and have wonderful day! :-)))

Erica/Jim: would you take the lead on pulling this info together? I just got it this morning and it looks to be a Department report on the various activities we all have been working on. There is a helpful template to insert the various components (coal, O&G, etc). We will feeding this into a BLM component, presumable with Jeff Brune.

Thanks!

ADs for 200/300/400:

Regarding the spreadsheet I referenced yesterday (i.e., an additional deliverable under BLM's report on E.O. 13783), I'm told that Exec Sec is anxious to get this product. This spreadsheet is apparently intended to be an attachment to the narrative report (i.e., the Google Doc you worked on yesterday).

First things first: please task staff with populating this spreadsheet. To that end, you will soon receive (or may have already received) a Google Docs invite from Glenda Valdez (WO-100's summer intern) to provide content to the Google Sheets (i.e., the spreadsheet template for this assignment).

The spreadsheet allegedly does NOT ask for any additional info, above and beyond what you've already provided in the narrative. The task of populating the spreadsheet should be a cut-and-paste exercise, in other words.

As with the report, please add your material as soon as possible. Let me know if you have questions with the assignment. Finally, please recall that I'll be on annual leave tomorrow and Friday (7/21); Kelly Orr will be acting CoS in my absence (I've cc:ed her here).

Chris/Nikki - did you previously complete a spreadsheet similar to the attached for BLM Manual 6220, BLM Manual 6400, and BLM Manual 6280? If so, could you please email it?

Thanks, Shelley

ADs for 200/300/400:

Regarding the spreadsheet I referenced yesterday (i.e., an additional deliverable under BLM's report on E.O. 13783), I'm told that Exec Sec is anxious to get this product. This spreadsheet is apparently intended to be an attachment to the narrative report (i.e., the Google Doc you worked on yesterday).

First things first: please task staff with populating this spreadsheet. To that end, you will soon receive (or may have already received) a Google Docs invite from Glenda Valdez (WO-100's summer intern) to provide content to the Google Sheets (i.e., the spreadsheet template for this assignment).

The spreadsheet allegedly does NOT ask for any additional info, above and beyond what you've already provided in the narrative. The task of populating the spreadsheet should be a cut-and-paste exercise, in other words.

As with the report, please add your material as soon as possible. Let me know if you have questions with the assignment. Finally, please recall that I'll be on annual leave tomorrow and Friday (7/21); Kelly Orr will be acting CoS in my absence (I've cc:ed her here).

Thanks,

Peter

Hi Kelly,

Glenda set up the spreadsheet as a Google doc for the divisions to populate. WO-300 has completed the entries for our divisions. I am not sure of the status of the other divisions. The

ADs for 200/300/400:

Regarding the spreadsheet I referenced yesterday (i.e., an additional deliverable under BLM's report on E.O. 13783), I'm told that Exec Sec is anxious to get this product. This spreadsheet is apparently intended to be an attachment to the narrative report (i.e., the Google Doc you worked on yesterday).

First things first: please task staff with populating this spreadsheet. To that end, you will soon receive (or may have already received) a Google Docs invite from Glenda Valdez (WO-100's summer intern) to provide content to the Google Sheets (i.e., the spreadsheet template for this assignment).

The spreadsheet allegedly does NOT ask for any additional info, above and beyond what you've already provided in the narrative. The task of populating the spreadsheet should be a cut-and-paste exercise, in other words.

As with the report, please add your material as soon as possible. Let me know if you have questions with the assignment. Finally, please recall that I'll be on annual leave tomorrow and Friday (7/21); Kelly Orr will be acting CoS in my absence (I've cc:ed her here).

Shelley - I just talked to Jill in ASLM and we're OK to just have lots of TBDs for the cost columns (that's what BSEE has done too).

Thomas - please let Glenda and I know as soon as you have Kristin's OK so we can send this upstairs.

Template for Input into July Draft E.O. 13783 Energy Report

Please use the format provided by this template for your input required under Executive Order 13783.

I. Executive Summary

Please provide an executive summary highlighting key activities your bureau/office is doing to alleviate or eliminate actions that potentially burden development or use of domestically produced energy resources. Include:

- Estimated number of actions being addressed for burden reduction
- How many of those actions are related to:
 - Climate Change
 - Mitigation
 - Coal
 - Indian Energy
 - Energy-Related Information Collections
 - Grant Programs
 - Restrictions in Acquisition Policy or Regulation
 - Other

II. Recommendations for Alleviating or Eliminating Burdensome Actions

A. Climate Change Actions

For each climate change action with the potential to burden development or use of domestically produced energy resources, provide:

1. Description. Describe the action, including whether the action is a policy, rule, or other document and how the action potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the action is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the action. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the action and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.
5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to regulations, and plans for instituting them.

B. Mitigation Actions

For each Mitigation action with the potential to burden development or use of domestically produced energy resources, provide:

1. Description. Describe the action, including whether the action is a policy, rule, or other document and how the action potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the action is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the action. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the action and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.
5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to regulations, and plans for instituting them.

C. Coal-Related

For each coal-related action with the potential to burden development or use of domestically produced energy resources, provide:

1. Description. Describe the action, including whether the action is a policy, rule, or other document and how the action potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the action is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the action. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the action and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.
5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to regulations, and plans for instituting them.

D. Indian Energy Actions

For each Indian energy action with the potential to burden development or use of domestically produced energy resources (including but not limited to Tribal Energy Resource Agreement regulations, lack of capital and cost recovery for development of Tribal energy, and Indian trader regulations), provide:

1. Description. Describe the action, including whether the action is a policy, rule, or other document and how the action potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the action is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the action. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the action and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.
5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to regulations, and plans for instituting them.

E. Energy-Related Information Collections under the Paperwork Reduction Act

Identify whether there are any energy-related collections of information under the Paperwork Reduction Act (e.g., Approval of Operations, OMB Control No. 1004-0213; Application for Permit to Drill, OMB Control No. 1014-0025) that could reduce administrative burden on energy development and use through simplification of forms and associated instructions or guidance, or ceasing collections that are unnecessary or lack practical utility. For each such information collection, provide:

1. Description. Describe the information collection and how it potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the information collection is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the information collection. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the information collection and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.

5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to the information collection, and plans for instituting them.

F. Grant Programs

Identify whether there are any grant programs (including applications and scoring processes) that potentially burden the development or use of domestically produced energy, particularly those that exclude the production or use of certain forms of energy. For each such grant program, provide:

1. Description. Describe the grant program and how it potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the grant program is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the grant program. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the grant program and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.
5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to the grant program, and plans for instituting them.

G. Restrictions in Acquisition Policy and Regulations

Identify whether there are any restrictions in acquisition policy and regulations (including but not limited to the policy for energy management) that potentially burden the development or use of domestically produced energy. For each such restriction, provide:

1. Description. Describe the restriction and how it potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the restriction is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the restriction. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the restriction and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.

5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to the restriction, and plans for instituting them.

H. Other Actions that Potentially Burden Development or Use of Energy

Identify any other action identified that does not fit into one of the categories listed above, with the potential to burden development or use of domestically produced energy resources. For each such action, provide:

1. Description. Describe the action, including whether the action is a policy, rule, or other document and how the action potentially burdens development or use of domestically produced energy resources
2. Opportunities to Address Burden or Other Issues of Concern. Describe how the action is being addressed to reduce burden on energy (rescission, revision, suspension, publication for public comment, or otherwise). Include an estimated timeline for addressing the action. Also describe plans for obtaining public input.
3. Anticipated Benefits. Describe benefits to be obtained by addressing the action and quantify benefits by filling in attached spreadsheet.
4. Measuring Success. Describe how the reduction in burden will be measured, including key timelines or benchmarks.
5. Interim Methods. Describe whether there are any interim compliance requirements, such as variances or waivers, that could be put into place pending longer-term revisions to regulations, and plans for instituting them.
