grass fires that threatened buildings but actually did damage claimed the attention of the local fire department yesterday afternoon.

First, received at 1:58, summoned firemen to Douglas road where three houses were burned over. A fire had been started in the garage flared up in the after-threatening chicken before it was brought under control.

At 12 o'clock a call was made in charge of a fire in the back of Edgewood drive, near the creek, where children with matches had started a fire that scorched several trees.

struggle for two streets on the outskirts, where Nazi veterans and reserves alike had failed to gain.

Northwest of the city, on a 40-mile front between the Don and Volga rivers, Marshal Semion Timoshenko's relief army was reported to have strengthened its positions, challenging the vital German left flank which protects the main siege armies.

In the central Caucasus, Russian troops in a night attack were officially reported to have recaptured a community in the Mozdok area, 40 miles north of the Grozny oil fields, and pressed on to dislodge the Germans from another position. About 900 Nazi troops were killed, the Soviet command said.

Six attacks repulsed
"Southeast of Novorossiisk (on the Black Sea coast), our troops repulsed six enemy attacks and killed more than 100 Hitlerites," Red army headquarters declared. "In another sector, our troops dislodged the Germans from two heights."

Egyptian campaign—Fierce air battles raged over the desert front yesterday, possibly heralding an early resumption of the long-stalled land fighting.

"Enemy air attacks on Malta were on a reduced scale," a British communique said.

Page Mill Camp, will visit Los Altos Saturday to stimulate the sale of War Bonds, already active under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Hennessey and Mrs. B. M. Beton.

Children who want to ride in Bondie may do so by buying a War Stamp, but it will take a bond to get the adults admitted.

The rally will be held on Main street, started off by a bugler from Page Mill Camp.

Two women are on duty daily from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the War Bond booth, which has almost reached the $10,000 mark in its sales since it started a few weeks ago.

MORE FUNDS FOR NAVY
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—The house completed its work today on a supplemental appropriation bill authorizing expenditure of another $15,000,000,000 to build a greater navy, and senate approval later in the week was expected to send the measure to the White House.
