Dear all,

Thank you very much for your time on Wednesday and for the very interesting exchanges.

As discussed during our meeting, please find attached:

- Our thought starter on how to introduce the essential use concept in the risk management route
- Information (excel sheet + guidance document) related to the internal survey we are conducting to assess the impact of the CSS

From our remote team to yours, we would like to thank you for all the exchanges we had with you in 2020 and we hope to see you soon in 2021.

Season's Greetings,

[REDACTED]

Thanks [REDACTED]

This looks like a good basis.

I let the colleagues come back if they have anything to add. Otherwise, we use your agenda.
