

ever, until State highway engineers receive a Federal allocation of steel, Buchanan said. Three overpasses, requiring an operator with a salary range of $218 to $258 a month, commission officials reported.

Fourth quarter is not expected to be 1,100,000 units under Government restrictions. No new vehicles have been made as low the market out during the 1952.

An independent organization—tution—advised that a production of 4,000,000 cars is necessary to keep the running smooth out that a minimum would come and they couldn't close production lines in steel, even in war.

The automobile scrap drive is 1,000 tons of scrap during September. Automobile Manufacturers said last week.
