HEARINGS TO CONSIDER DNR ADMINISTRATIVE CODE
PROPOSALS FOR CONTROLLING POLYCHLORINATED BIPHENYLS

August 28, 1975

| Time | Subject | Speaker |
|---|---|---|
| 10:00 a.m. | Introductory Remarks | James Christenson, Attorney & Hearing Examiner Wisconsin DNR |
| 10:10 a.m. | The PCB Problem in Wisconsina) Accumulations in fishb) Sources of PCBsc) DNR testing program | Stanton Kleinert, Chief Surveillance Section Wisconsin DNR |
| | Health Considerations for Consumers of Fish Containing PCBs | |
| 10:40 a.m. | a) Rationale for the 5 ppm action level and FDA enforcement action for carp in Lake Pepin | Henry P. Roberts, Deputy Regional Director, Food and Drug Administration 240 Hennepin Avenue Minneapolis, Minnesota 55401 |
| 11:10 a.m. | b) State Department of Agriculture food testing programs and enforcement action for carp from Green Bay | Bill Hanson or Norm Kirschbau Food Inspection Wis. Department of Agricultur |
| 11:30 a.m. | c) Fish Consumption Advice by the Wisconsin Department of Health and Social Services | George H. Handy, M.D. State Health Officer Wis. Dept. of H&SS |
| 12:00 | Noon Recess | |
| 1:00 p.m. | d) Studies of fish consumers in Michigan | Harold Humphrey, Ph.D. Environmental Epidemiologist Michigan Department of Health 350 N. Logan Street Lansing, Michigan 48914 |
| 1:30 p.m. | e) Studies of the toxicity of PCBs to rhesus monkeys | J. R. Allen, M.D. Department of Pathology U.W. Medical School Madison, Wisconsin |
| 2:00 p.m. | Past and Current Production and Use of PCBs | W. B. Papageorge, Manager Product Acceptability Monsanto Industrial Chem. Co. 800 N. Lindbergh Blvd. St. Louis, Missouri 63166 |
| 3:00 p.m. | Open Testimony | |

MONS 078889

HEARINGS TO CONSIDER DNR ADMINISTRATIVE CODE
PROPOSALS FOR CONTROLLING POLYCHLORINATED BIPHENYLS

August 29, 1975

| Time | Subject | Speaker |
|---|---|---|
| | Regulatory Options for Controlling PCBs | |
| 8:30 a.m. | a) Effluent Standards1. Studies of the bioaccumulation of PCBs by aquatic life including fish2. What does the scientific data indicate is an adequate effluent standard for PCBs? | G. D. Veith, Ph.D.National Water Quality LaboratoryDuluth, Minnesota |
| 9:00 a.m. | b) Comments from the Office of Toxic Substances - U.S. EPA1. Current status of proposed effluent standards for PCBs by EPA2. Current uses of PCBs as determined by recent studies. Use in printing inks, investment casting waxes, etc.3. Toxic substances control legislation in Congress which relates to the PCB problem4. Actions by foreign countries to limit the sale and use of PCBs | Thomas KoppOffice of Toxic SubstancesU.S. EPAWashington, D. C. 20460 |
| 9:45 a.m. | Open Testimony | |
| 12:00 | Noon Recess | |
| 1:00 p.m. | Open Testimony | |

MONS 078890