

FILE NAME: McGraw-Edison (ME)

DATE: 1950 July 6

DOC#: ME006

DOCUMENT DESCRIPTION: Newspaper - SF Larchar & Myhren Gjerde [VP of Industrial Relations & Safety Manager] speak at Edison First Aid Club

Edison First Aid Club Installs Officers

Officers were installed last Thursday night at the eighth annual dinner of the Edison First Aid Club of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., held at Robin Hood Inn. S. E. Applegate, 19 Virginia Avenue, manager of the safety and health section, personnel department, acted as chairman.

Mrs. Edna Wright of West Orange was inaugurated as president.

The principal speaker was Sumner F. Larchar, vice president in charge of industrial relations of the Edison Company.

Among others who spoke were Myhren I. Gjerde, safety engineer of the company, and John Venable, secretary to Charles Edison.

Thirty club members and guests were present which marked the last meeting until Oct. 10.