Dear Mr. Brown:

Thanks very much for yours of May 8th together with copy of your letter of the same date to Mr. Thomas L. Gatke and also copy of Dr. Gardner's letter to you of April 8th, the contents of which are interesting.

As stated in your letter to Mr. Gatke, I think it is high time we did receive the final report from Dr. Gardner and I wonder whether you will be so kind enough as to start and bring pressure to bear upon him. If there is anything which I can do, such as also writing to Dr. Gardner, please let me know.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Samuel Y. Mendenhall

President
