"Dear me no!

We bought our radio and piano out of town!

And my dear, we got them below cost, imagine!"

T[illegible] will give a type of friendly service that is impossible [illegible] she still won't be convinced. Too bad! She continues to buy out-of-town—blind to the fact that she is contributing to local unemployment and that the dollars she spends never return.

Other SCOOTS may be forcing her husband out of a job—for unless the people of a community buy from local merchants, these merchants cannot buy services or merchandise in turn, from them!

PLEADS GUILTY TO ASSAULT

Marcus Leiva pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon when he appeared before Judge Edward Henderson this morning in the superior court and will be sentenced to either the county jail or state penitentiary when he comes up for sentence Monday morning. The matter was referred to the probation office to settle questions pertinent to the sentence.

WILL ROGERS says:

SAN JUAN (Porto Rico) Oct. 27.—(To the Editor of The Star:) Finally got hold of a United States paper. Said I went to buy polo ponies. That must have handed my banker a laugh. Thank somebody for the compliment. Old age and depression hit my polo game year. Type of polo I always played, I could get my horses off a merry-go-round. Besides if I wanted good horses I would never leave America for 'em, and if they will let me race in every state we will have better ones everywhere.

Just stopped for gas at our Virgin Islands. Looks like Roosevelt's got it today. Stopping in San Juan, Porto Rico. Just looking down now on the wreckage of that hurricane one month ago last night. It's hard to tell who needs money the worst nowadays, but I believe you could send some here through the Red Cross and feel that's going to the most needy place.

Yours,

Will Rogers
