

CHARLESTON, W. Va. AP — Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge is "working for the opposition," Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said.

Times

Lodge's name has figured prominently in speculation on the eventual GOP nominee although he has said repeatedly he is not a candidate and does not intend to leave his post to become one.

Asked if a news conference how he planned to compete with Lange, a front-runner in several primaries, Rockefeller said he found it very difficult to wage a campaign against "persons who isn't there and who says nothing on any issues."

WASHINGTON — State Controller Alan Cranston Thursday picked up the support of two of the three California Democratic congressmen who had openly backed Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) in Engle's now abandoned bid for reelection.

However, in taking the step, Reps. D. F. Sax of Fresno and Harold T. Johnson of Hanford expressed regrets they could not endorse Cranston's major opponent for the Democratic senatorial nomination, former White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger.

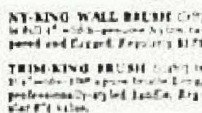

Abstract

Engle's third announced supporter in the California Democratic congressional delegation, Rep. Hiram Hagen of Hanford, said Sisk and Johnson had asked him to join in the statement but that he does not intend at this time to take a position on the senatorial contest.

By gaining the support of Rusk and Johnson, Cranston now has the pledged backing of slightly more than half of California's 20 Democratic congressmen. Most of the others announced their support after Cranston won the endorsement of the California Democratic Council, an official party organization, several weeks ago.
