Michael,

I will be visiting with the Gilcrease curator when she returns to Tulsa next week. I do know that we aren't allowed to loan or send any art from the Thomas Gilcrease Collection to non-accredited museums that do not meet museum standard humidity and temperature standards. I will ask about, however, the Gilcrease Rendevous art in case there is something from that collection we could send. If its do-able, I'll get back with you and we can check with Scott what size painting, he would need, given his wall space.

Lastly, Gerry and I will be in DC in late June or early July. If it works out that we can make the loan, we could visit Scott and get an idea of what the office would accommodate.

Will be in touch next week,

Susan
