1 MR. FRIESTEDT: Object to the form.

2 A Well, I guess when I was saying the notices of 3 meetings, I am talking about a thing that says we are going
4 to meet at Camelback Inn on such and such a date and all 5 that. The notice of meetings were this is the notice for the 6 technical committees or the other committees that the -- this 7 is the notice of the meetings for the committee members.
8 This thing here was one of the many things that would appear
9 under the general bulletins. General bulletins would tell
10 who the officers and one or two -- are you going to come -- 11 will you be coming to the meeting, it's going to be held such 12 and such, we are going to have the golf at 7 o'clock morning
13 because it's too hot the Scottsdale or stuff like that. This 14 notices of meetings were -- there was a meeting of the Data 15 Book Committee for such and such date and while there was 16 no -- no option or no discussion, no nothing, that was a
17 notice of a meeting.

18 Q What was in the general bulletins --

19 A I told you.

20 Q -- the eight of which were described there as 21 contrasted from a shoe bulletin?

22 A The general information about the Institute such 23 as the officers, the following officers were elected --
