

Home was elected to the top position on the Legion at the 1943-44 convention in San Diego. He won over two other candidates.

Home is a veteran of World War I. He fought with the English Royal Air Force, joining the British Commonwealth Air Force Command in Canada after being ordered to report to the U. S. Air Force because of a leg injury.

The ex-soldier is a member of the American Legion since 1924.

As commander, he said on Wednesday, he plans to spend much of his time visiting military hospitals, through to revise Legion membership in local non-partisan manner.

He also will work for closer working relations between the States and the Federal Government and the Legion's corps of trained demonstrators.

Home, 51, is a Los Angeles attorney, is married and has one daughter and a grandson.

Old Soldier Dies

PHILADELPHIA, N. D., Sept. 22 (AP)—Edward Haines, a soldier in General George A. Custer's command who died in the Little Bighorn battle in 1876 because he lacked the will to get there, died in a hospital here last night. He would have been 90 years old on October 1.
