

Philadelphia, Pa.,
September 11, 1939.

At a regular meeting of the Directors of John T. Lewis & Bros. Company held this day in their offices in the Widener Building, there were present:

Edward F. Beale, Chairman of the Board
S. French Reeves, Vice President and Treasurer
J. W. Gardiner, Vice President
Morris H. Merritt, Secretary
Leonard T. Beale, Director

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Edward F. Beale, who presided, and Mr. Morris H. Merritt reported the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of our meeting of August 28th were read and approved.

Mr. Reeves called attention to the fact that the Philadelphia Paint Club at their next regular meeting, are planning to honor all the men in this section who have worked 50 years in the paint industry. Mr. Edward F. Beale will try to attend if he can.

It was decided to recommend that George Eveland, 63 years old, who has been working in our cooper shop for the past 38 years and who is now suffering very badly from rheumatism, be placed on pension by the National Lead Co.

Mr. Reeves reported that the Fort Washington Chemical Company are trying to market their product as an expander. The National Lead Company laboratory has a sample of their material and will check up this matter.

Mr. Gardiner presented an application from the Fairmount Park Guards to place an advertisement in their year book, but it was decided not to do so at the present time.

He called attention to the fact that the regular sales meeting will be held in New York beginning tomorrow and continuing through Wednesday and Thursday, if necessary. The proposed Philadelphia plan in full, as suggested by this branch, is placed at the top of the program.

Mr. Gardiner submitted the regular weekly report of shipments.

There being no further business, upon motion the meeting adjourned.
