UNCEASING VIGILANCE is MRS. CLARENCE MARTIN'S dictum. In the Monterey civilian defense office, where Mrs. Martin is one of the active volunteer workers, the cameraman found this prominent Monterey woman on duty. She is one of the wise ones who realizes the danger of letting down on the defense program at the present time. Only fools believe Japan will never attempt anything in the way of a reprisal on the Pacific coast.

Girl Scout Leaders Inducted Tuesday at Impressive Ritual

The Pacific Grove Girl Scout house was the setting last Tuesday for a lovely tea and induction ceremony for the new leaders of the Monterey Peninsula Girl Scouts, member agency of the Community Chest.

Mrs. Irving Moody, Leaders' association president, and her able committee of "old" leaders, namely, Mrs. Millicent Anderson, Mrs. Frances Huntington and Mrs. J. M. Moss, were gracious hostesses to the new leaders.

Taking part in the ceremony, in addition to Mrs. Moody and the new leaders were Mrs. Joan Gratiot, commissioner; Mrs. A. C. Miller, deputy commissioner, and Mrs. Marie Von Kanel executive secretary.

The new leaders who received the Girl Scout pin as a token of their full induction into the Girl Scout organization were Mrs. Beverly Cradwick, Mrs. A. H. Clinton, Mrs. H. L. Crawford, Mrs. W. H. Irvine, Mrs. H. R. Lewis, Mrs. Don J. Wilson, Mrs. Bernard Watson, Mrs. Belle Kayes, Mrs. C. C. Anderson, Mrs. Garrett Eckhardt and Mrs. Mary Henderson.

Other leaders who were to be inducted but could not be present were Mrs. Boyd Beall, Mrs. E. G. Fletcher, Mrs. Marjorie Gibson, Mrs. Norman Hasselt, Mrs. Harryette McGarr, Mrs. Dorothy Schaefer, Mrs. Mabel Walker, Mrs. Ted Wasson, Mrs. Marie Cain, Mrs. Mabel Frawley and Mrs. Martin Harty.

Those who received certificates of completion of the introductory Girl Scout training course were Mrs. C. C. Anderson, Mrs. Mabel Frawley, Mrs. Boyd Beall, Mrs. Mabel Walker, Mrs. Harryette McGarr, Mrs. Dorothy Schaefer, Mrs. Mabel Walker, Mrs. Ted Wasson, Mrs. Marie Cain, Mrs. Mabel Frawley and Mrs. Martin Harty.

Garr, Mrs. Florence Adams, Mrs. E. R. Edgington, Mrs. Irene Avis and Mrs. W. H. Irvine.

At the conclusion of the induction ceremony Mrs. Moody and her committee served delicious refreshments of home made cakes and tea.

Other guests present were Mrs. J. M. Murrell, Brownie Leaders' association president; Mrs. Hazel Zeas, Brownie leader from Carmel and two very new leaders who will be inducted at a later ceremony, namely, Mrs. Caesar Collette and Mrs. John Hill. Also present were two Pacific Grove district committee members, Mrs. Ed Hurburt and Mrs. Rinda Partridge.

ANN NASH MURDER MYSTERY RELEASED

"Said With Flowers," the Crime club book by Ann Nash, is officially on sale today, according to word from the publishers Doubleday-Doran Edith Griffin, of the Village Book Shop in Carmel, is planning on some sort of a celebration at the shop in Ann's honor. We're a bit hazy on the time, however, simply because at this writing Miss Griffin had not received the copies ordered many months ago, nor word from Miss Nash that she would be in town from her Carmel Valley ranch. If you're interested, our suggestion is that you keep in touch with the Village Book Shop.

J. W. GETSINGER IN SOUTH FOR SIX DAYS

Mr. J. Willson Getsinger, superintendent of the Carmel unified school district, leaves for the south tomorrow to be gone until the following Thursday. He will spend the week end in Los Angeles with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Getsinger, and will be in Hollywood for the remainder of the time attending the annual California high school principals' convention, an event which takes place each year during spring vacation. Mr. Getsinger's brother is an engineer associated with Douglas Aircraft.

MRS. RENDTORFF WILL MEET WITH GROUP

Mrs. Karl G. Rendtorff will meet with her foreign relations group at her home in Carmel on Monday April 19, at 3 p.m., she announced today.

Mrs. Mac Woods, one of the oldest members, was welcomed back after a long absence.

The group studied the religious customs and habits of the Mohammedans and Mrs. R. A. Pace gave a report on the status of Mohammedan women that was most enlightening.

Mrs. Harry L. West and Mrs. W. L. Cain were the hostesses for the afternoon.

SALVADOR DALIS LEFT FOR NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Dali, who have been living at Del Monte Lodge for many months, left Wednesday for New York City where Dali's portrait exhibit is due for an opening. The show opens on Sunday at the Knoedler gallery. The Dalis will be at the St. Regis for two months and then plan to return to the Monterey Peninsula.
