USES.

Old Automobiles. For refinishing old automobiles JAP-A-LAC Solid Enamels are unexcelled. Apple Green Enamel, Enamel Red, Enamel Green (Dark), and Brilliant Black are especially suitable for this purpose.

Furniture, Woodwork, Etc. Tables, chairs, bric-a-brac, shelves, and in fact furniture and woodwork of all kinds can be beautifully refinished with JAP-A-LAC Solid Enamels. Enamel Green (Pale), Enamel Blue (Pale), and Enamel Pink. It is a great satisfaction to enamel the entire woodwork of your bedrooms, nursery, etc., with any of these beautifully tinted enamels, or the White Enamel may be used if preferred.

Porch and Lawn Furniture. Swings, settees, porch chairs, flower boxes, etc. should be refinished with Apple Green Enamel, Enamel Red or Enamel Green (Dark). The finish produced is durable and lasting, successfully resisting the action of the elements.

Screens. Brilliant Black JAP-A-LAC (thinned one-third to one-half with pure turpentine) prolongs the life of the wire cloth of screens. It is the best preservative of wire cloth on the market.

Iron Work, Fences, Pipes, Etc. finished with Brilliant Black or Dead Black JAP-A-LAC will be protected from rust with a finish which is lasting and durable. The parts of stoves that are not exposed to extreme heat should be given a coat of Dead Black JAP-A-LAC. It is more durable than anything else that can be used for this purpose, and does not require constant attention, as is the case when stove polish is used.

NOTE.

One coat of Dead Black JAP-A-LAC produces the new artistic Black Wrought Iron Finish on tarnished chandeliers, picture frames, andirons, lamps, etc.
